

THE GAME OF “MONUMENTAL” MOVES

CORINTHO

Greece, 400 B.C.

The foundation has been laid for a new temple.

Two “architects” have to form a line of three constructions which are topped by the same type of columns to win.

But to win, these constructions shall remain unchanged in the following turn.

Capital

Column

Base

These are the particular elements with which to build your victory

The goal is to create a row of at least three pieces with the same element on top

2 12+ 30'

COMPONENTS

- 8 Bases
- 8 Columns
- 8 Capitals
- 1 Dashboard 3D

Available on TABLETOPIA on request

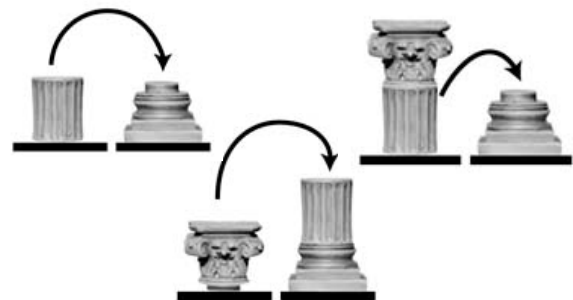

Designed by: Paolo Scattini &
Giovanni Caron
Developed by: GAM eStudio –
Italy

©2004 P.Scattini, G. Caron and
GAM eStudio

All right reserved

Contact: info@gamestudio.it

You can play your own piece on a free square or stack pieces already played as long as they are adjacent